

Spring Break Nature Camp

Alexandria's Prehistoric Peoples

FORD NATURE CENTER

Dates & Time:

4/18/11 - 4/22/11

9:00am-3:30pm

(Drop-off 8:30am)

A week long, full day nature camp for youth ages 7 - 10 where children learn about the prehistoric Indian peoples who once lived within Alexandria's ancient forests. Activities include woodland hikes, games, role playing, stone toolmaking, storytelling, journaling, and more! Camp includes a field trip to the National Museum of the American Indian in Washington, DC.

Registration :
OPEN until April 21, 2011

Cost: $275 for full week

Jerome "Buddie" Ford Nature Center
5750 Sanger Avenue
Alexandria, Virginia 22311

Register online at alexandriava.gov/recreation or call 703-746-5559 for more information.

Department of Recreation, Parks & Cultural Activities

